A Fatal Duel Between Bloods.

SCENE IN KENTUCKY.

One Mr. Knott with Mr. Schott Into some quarrel got: The cause was what? No matter what: Their anger waxed hot.

Then Mr. Knott called Mr. Schott Hard names—no matter what— And Mr. Scott replic! to Knott In terms, no matter what.

Wrote Mr. Knott straightway to Schott, And Schott replied to Knott. Wrote Mr. Knott again to Schott, And Schott wrote back to Knott.

So Mr. Knott from Mr Schott,
The deadly challenge got,
And Knoot wrote back to Schott
That he declined it not.

Now Mr. Knott and Mr. Schott Their tried revolvers got. The friends of Schott, the friends of Knott All went into the lot.

Big Mr. Schott big Mr. Knott, Three glorious rounds there fought: Our Mr. Knott he got the shot, And Schott he got it not.

As Mr. Knott had missed his shot, And Schott had missed his not, So Knott was shot and Schott was not, And Schott the glory got.

Another Judgment.— Some time since, one of our correspondents desired to know a parallel to Solomon's judgment. One occurs in Gesta Romanorum. Three youths, to decide a question, are desired by the King of Jerusalem, to whom they referred the matter, to shoot at their father's dead body. Only one refused, and to him, as the rightful heir, the legacy is awarded. In the Harleian Mss. is a similar story, told as occurring in the Kingdom of Pegu. One woman's child was carried away by the alligator; she and another woman claim the child; they are desired to pull for it; the infant cries, and one instantly quits her hold, and the judge awards the child to her. The former incident was frequently quoted in the pulpit. The Emperor Claudius, when a woman refused to own her son, ordered them to be married. The mother confessed her child at once. Probably this is the incident for which the inquiry was made.— Notes and Queries.

"Mr. Speaker," said a new member, rising "we cannot prize too dearly the rights of freedom. They have been transmitted to us by our fathers as a rich legacy, and praised by the hand of the one who would refuse to acknowledge or maintain them.—Among these rights, Mr. Speaker, is the right of volition, of doing as we please.—Every man, sir, should do as he pleases, and if he does not, he should be compelled to."

Personal Identity—Many years ago, perhaps about the year 17-92, there were two brothers of the name of Harp, rosming about the barrens of Kentucky, whose ocupations seemed to be to commit attoclous murders, and in many instances apparantly without any object except, as the elder acknowledged, hatred of the human species. In consequence of those afrocities, the Governor of the State offered large rewards for their captive. To avenge the murder of a Mrs. Stegul, a man by the amme of Leiper raised a party and set out in pursuit of the murderors. The elder Harp was arrested and killed, his head cut offi and carried before a justice of the peace to claim the reward. The head was then stuck on a tree at the fork of the reads, which has ever since been known as Harp's Head road. The younger brother escaped and joined a party on the Mississippi river, headed by a man of the name of Measure. They were river pirales, and robbed boats going down the river, or paties ascending who right have money in their possession—plea-antly observing that these people took produce to market for them. During the absence of the gang. Harp cut off Measure's heature, where Governor Claiborne had offered a reward off $1,000 for it. His claim to the reward off $1,000 for it. Another Expedition to the Arctic Regions.—The British journals are urging again the importance of sending out another expedition to the Artic regions, with the hope of finding some of the survivors of the lost explorer, Sir John Franklin. Two milions of dollars have already been expended in making searches, and it is a strong evidence of the generous feelings inspiring the people of England, when they contemplate to make another effort to rescue any persons who may have survived the persons now known to have perished in their efforts to add to our treasures of geographical science. It is possible that aimid the frozen snows of the North some band of struggling adventurers may yet be hoping that the bright world beyond them is not unmindful of the possibility of their existence, and thus that they keep their hearts warm with the anticipations of some day returning to the regions of civilised life.

A summer land search up Great Fish river has been proposed as one that would be devoid of danger, and less expensive than any other, while there is reason to hope that some of the one hundred and five persons who had gone beyond the traces of the last searches may be discovered. The spirit and enterprise which characterize the British nation will probably not be satisfied with discussing this matter, but capital will be bountifully applied to the effort to recover those whose tale of adventure and stores of narrative may amply repay the whole world for the cost of attempting to reach the conclusion of the Arctic epic.

The Late Battle Fields.—The Paris correspondent of the Journal of Commerce learns from a person who has just returned from a visit to the field of Magenta and the neighborhood, that already not a vestige remains of the late event, and that the country looks as smiling and prosperous as if the rude breath of war had not passed over it for ages. Trees and foliage seem everywhere to stand intact; and to use his own expression, "one might have passed over the site of the conflict without ever being aware of it." Novara had resumed its clean, lively, bustling look, so strikingly in contrast with the dull, grass-grown streets of Ferrar and other Papal towns; while, to show that liberty is not merely a name in Sardinia, the London Punch, with some of its coarsest caricatures of Louis Napoleon and of Victor Emmanuel himself, is exhibited openly in the shop windows, without either police or government troubling their heads about the matter.

THE LARGEST OPERA HOUSE IN THE WORLD.—They are erecting at Rio de Janeiro an opera house which surpasses the celebrated theatres of the lyric drama at Milan and Naples, and is four times the size of the Royal Italian Opera Honse, Covent Garden, London. The Emperor, who takes the lead in the literary and scientific matters of the empire is a great lover of music. The successful plan for this temple of the Muses brought Messrs. Green and Deville of London $16,000, VICTORIA, VANCOUVER ISLAND. Tuesday Morning, January 3, 1860.

Public Notice.

Town of Victoria, }

I, George W. Heaton, Esquire, Sheriff of Vancouver Island, and Returning Officer for said Town, do hereby give public notice that I shall proceed to the Election of two persons to serve in Parliament for the said Town, at Victoria aforesaid, on Friday next, the 6th day of January, A. D. 1860, at nine of the clock in the forenoon.

[L. s.] Geo. W. Heaton.

Dated this 31st day of December, 1859.

On Sunday last, the Sheriff's proclama tion, as above, made its appearance on the door of the Episcopal Church, in this town. It was put there in harmony, doubtless, with the time-honored notion that everybody is, or ought to be, an attendant on the services of the church by law established in some parts of Her Majesty's dominions, and thus all would be notified by the written advertisement thus displayed.

No one who has been closely observant of movements in high quarters of late, has been taken by surprise at this announcement. For ourselves, we have been in daily expectancy of it, for some time past. Mr. Cary's public debut on Friday evening, was the last bugle-note of preparation. duly sounded, the Sheriff's notice was the next event in the natural and inevitable order of things.

Many persons are expressing astonishment and dissatisfaction at the shortness of the notice given and suspect the springing of a trap for the unwary. His Excellency's legal adviser, Mr. Attorney General, has been doubtless in a position to enable his friends to make the most advantageous use of knowledge to which his official relations have given him ready access. But as no particular time is specified in our recent franchise act and it especially provided that the mode of conducting elections in England shall hold good and be the same in Vancouver Island, subject to the specifications of our Act, the following Imperial statute bears on the case, and will be found to have been duly adhered to in the present instance: 16 and 17 Viet. chap. 68. section 3 of said statute is as as follows: "That the Act of the third and fourth Victoria, chap. 81, be and the same is hereby repealed, and in every city or town being a county of itself, and in every borough, town corporate, port, or place, returning or contributing to return a member or members to serve in Parliament in England and Wales, the officer to whom the duty of giving notice for the section of such member or members belongs, shall proceed to election within six days after the receipt of the writ or precept, giving three clear days notice at least of the day of election, exclusive of the day of pro-clamation and the day of election."

pointed for the 11th inst in accordance with another provision in the same statute with referenceto "any county, riding, ports or division &c" by which the returning officer is to give at least six days notice, and not more than twelve.

It behooves electors then to be up and doing The election is no longer an event indefinitely future. It is close upon us. There is no time to be lost. Let every requisite preparation be thoroughly made without delay. All who desire the reform of existing abuses and the return to parliament of honest, capable, reliable men, should bestir themselves, and use all legitimate means to secure the success of the cause they have at heart.

Let every man be at his post at NINE o'-CLOCK ON FRIDAY MORNING to support the nominations of worthy candidates, and let there be a strong and early rally at the poll on SATURDAY MORNING!

Political Coquetry and Meanness.

The Gazette is fickle and coquettish as a silly girl in her teens, as to the objects of its affectionate regard. A short time ago, it declared there were but four candidates in the Colony at all fit for parliamentary honors—Messrs. Langford, Gossett, Crease and Franklin. Mr. Cary was thus impliedly set down as unfit to be returned, but our fickle cotemporary seems to have become suddenly enamoured of the latter gentleman, and to have given Mr. Langford the mitten for his sake. If for substantial rea-sons held, and given to the public, the Gazette felt bound to withdraw its support from Mr. Langford, while we might find ith a too hasty committal in the first place, there would be less to censure, hen it meanly seeks to give its forfavorite a stab in the dark. A sham election address has been issued from the Gazette office and placarded round town intended to make Mr. Langford an object of public ridicule and contempt. A more unmanly and shabby political device was never resorted to. Not content with attacking and defaming Mr. Langford personally, his wife and family are put in the pillory, as objects of scorn and derision.

Nothing is urged against Mr. Langford in this disgraceful poster, but what must have been known to the Gazette, and the supporters of Mr. Cary, previously to the warm commendations of Mr. L., which appeared in the columns of the Gazette. No man is above the reach of the shafts of envy and slander. A distorted defamatory may be given of any one however firm and upright. Mr. Cary and his friends, if they wish to stand creditably with the public, ought to disclaim all complicity with this shameful procedure. And if the Gazette is not concerned in the matter, let it give to the public the names of those who appear so eage to be hangmen to the innocent. As for Mr. Langford, we predict that he will not lose a vote in consequence of this base trick.

"CAUCUS"-MAKING .- The political cooks who cater for the readers of the Gazette are so proud of their success in that line of things that they cannot refrain from giving their recipe to the world under the title of 'HOW TO MAKE A CAUCUS."

I have no empty promises to make you, nor any incoherent visions to bewilder you with; if you think my services may be useful to you, you can command them at the poll; but I consider it would be indecorous in me, and a very poor compliment to your understanding, to attempt by persuasion to force them

I propose shortly, in the most public manner, to reiterate the policy which I believe should be followed in this colony; and in the meantime, I will say that we must keep. Victoria a Free Port, never a.mitting the thin edge of the wedge, whether it comes in the shape of protective duties in favor of home produce, or under cover of annexation. We must settle up the available lands in the colony, and we can only effect this result by a judicious pre-emptive system.—Our taxation must be direct and equalized. nas any right to object:
Another point having a personal bearing:
The ground is taken that a Nova Scotian is not so eligible to our Colonial Legislature not so englishman. The franchise act de-clares every male British subject of full age, possessed of the qualification, and under none of the disqualifications mentioned, to be equally and alike eligible to election. We have already exposed the absurdity and illadvisedness of an attempt to pit Colonists and Englishmen against each other. Any and every British subject, in whatever part of Her Majesty's dominions his birthplace may be, is entitled to all the rights and privileges of this Colony. Whether he had from the English metropolis, "from Afric's sunny fountains or India's coral strand," whether he be white or black, shoemaker or Attorney-General, Smith or DeCosmos, it makes to matter, he is a British-born subject, and that is a name of equal distinction with that of Englishman.

FESTIVITIES AT NEW WESTMINSTER. We have had a gay time during Christmas here. Our Lieut. Governor, Col. Moody, gave a dinner on Friday last, to which a large party were invited. On Saturday, many private parties were given in camp and the men employed in cutting the vari ous trails came into the city; these, joined to the men employed on the wharves, formed themselves into a band, each armed with a candle, and gave a serenade at nearly every house-it was the Christmas Carols in rather All the inhabitants received a noisy way. them well, with scarcely any exception, and were only too glad to see the bone and sinew of the country enjoying themselves, and received the honor that was done them in the best of spirit, paying all largesse required. Christmas day being Sunday, was of course devoted to its proper use, without festivities. Monday, the non-commissioned officers gave a ball at the theatre they have officers gave a oan at the theatre they have erected by private subscription amongst themselves, which went off very well, to which most of the inhabitants received an invitation, and on Tuesday the festivities were ended by the officers giving a grand dinner at their mess-room, to which several ladies received invitations, and every thing passed off pleasantly.

"THE BRACE OF SOLONS."-The two legal gentlemen to whom this and other depreciatory epithets are applied in the Brown Jones and Robinson, alias Cary letter, have no great reason to dread a comparison even with the Attorney General. Either of them the Attorney General. Either of them might dissect his views of law reform, and make him appear sufficiently ridiculous to the manufacture of barristers in Californic, we do not know that there are any greater facilities there for an ignoramus to be alled to the bar, than there are in England for an ignoramus being appointed to a Col-onial Attorney Generalship. One of the gentlemen referred to, by the way, was not "called to the bar" in California but in Canada, and the other, an Englishman by birth, is unquestionably Mr. Cary's equal, if not his superior.

MECHANICS AND WORKING MEN. These form, it must be admitted, the bone and sinew of a young country. As such they are worthy of all honor. And if they have proper self-tespect, they will not sup-port those who treat them with contempt and disdain. Electors of these classes will do well to note the manner in which the Cary party make fun of being in "the boot and shoe line in a small way," and also how they try to depreciate Mr. Langford, because of his having been, as they say, a working farmer at a moderate salary

POSTPONEMENT. - We are requested by Dr. Dickson to state that his lecture advertised for this evening, is unavoidably post-

Apparition Extraordinary.

CERBERUS, the three-headed watch-dog appointed to guard the portals of that place which politeness forbids us to mention, has contrived to ascend to this earth, and is barking most furiously from the precincts of the Gazette office. He answers to the names of Brown, Jones, and Robinson, for of course a three-headed animal must have three names He has a special antipathy against all the supporters of Mr. A. DeCosmos, but fawns very kindly on all the friends of Mr. Cary. ors will govern themselves accordingly.

RETURNING OFFICERS. - The following are the returning officers appointed by his Excellency for the coming election: Victoria Town, Geo. W. Heaton; Victoria District, Geo. W. Heaton; Esquinalt and Met-chosin, A. Munro; Esquimalt Town, A. Munro; Lake District, Geo. W. Heaton; Saanich, W. Thompson; Salt Spring Island and Chemainos, John Begg; Nanaimo, C. S. Nichol; Sooke, John Muir, Jr.

The play of the "Stranger" was performed last evening, at the Royal theatre, to a crowded house, Mr. G. Clapman playing the Stranger, and Mrs. Chapman as Mrs. Haller. The entire piece was finely rendered.

CAPTAIN COOPER .- No explanation on our part is necessary in reference to Capt. Cooper, his name having never appeared in our columns in connection with a sent in the Legislature.

LAKE DISTRICT .- The election for this District is appointed for the 16th inst.

ELECTORS OF VICTORIA TOWN.

FLECTORS OF VICTORIA TOWN.

GENTLEMEN:

Responding to the support proffered me by numerous Electors, I am induced to offer myself as a Candidate to represent your interests in the House of Assembly.

Impressed with the importance of the position to which I aspire and of the more than ordinary duties that must devolve upon the members of the next Parliament, I shall, if elected, endeavor to perform my full share of the Public work, pursuing a perfectly independent and liberal course upon all questions, and towards all parties, seeking to effect a unanimity of action in the adoption of measures of genuine Reform, to advance this Colony, and render it what it is destined to become, the future Great Britain of the Pacific. Identified as I am with Commerce, I earnestly desire to see this Port made a great Emporium for British and European manufactures, whence the markets on this coast, including also those of the Sandwich Islands, Northern China, and the Amoor countries may be supplied. Our geographical position, with Capital and Free Trade to back it, I am satisfied would establish that cheapness here which is the attracting and governing power of Commerce. In our Forests, Fisheries, Coal and other Minerals, we have resources to turnish large exports, and to return cargoes of our own producing, if properly encouraged.

The Reciprocity Treaty existing between Canada and the United States should be extended to this side, between us and our neighbors.

farnish large exports, and to return cargoes of our own producing, if properly encouraged.

The Reciprocity Treaty existing between Canada and the United States should be extended to this side, between us and our neighbors.

We need an Ocean Mail Service.

This Town must be incorporated with Gas and Water privileges, reserved for its special benefit.
Our Island should be thoroughly explored, the Government Lands disposed of liberally to actual settlers, and the proceeds applied to the making of Roads, and the aiding of inmigration, with the preference given to respectable females.

In dealing with our Finences, we must seek to uphold and establish our Colonial credit. I have heard it stated that we have the incubus of a Debt to begin with. It is a British maxim that you cannot dispose of a man's property without his consen. I am not aware that the Parliament of this Cotany has ever voted supplies for which it had not provided ways and means. If, therefore, the Hudson's Bay Company claim any debt as now due to them, they must seek redress from the proper quarter; for my part, I pledge myself most emphatically to resist upon constitutional grounds, the payment of any sach claim by the People of this Colony.

I advocate the collection of the Revenue by Direct Taxation, charged upon Property, and not upon industry. Our expenditure must be regulated by strict economy.

The present Franchise Act, I regard as a temporary measure, wholly insufficient for the requirements of a new Colony.

In relation to the many other important questions of the day—such as the support of Churches, Schools, Asylums and Prisons—the adoption of a Registration Act for Lands, &c., &c., I will postpone their discussion until I shall have the pleasure of personally meeting you, when I will explain my views on these and other subjects in detail.

I am, Gentlemen, yours &c.

Selin Franklin.

I claim your suffrages as a liberal and in dependent Reformer.

I claim your suffrages as a liberal and in depen dent Reformer.

Every measure that will promote the rapid growth of this promising Colony, and foster its real progress, will have my warm support.

The present depressed state of the Finances of this country, demands early and serious attention, and, in order to keep taxation within the smallest possible limits, the utnost economy and prudence in admirizatering the resources of the country, consistent with the efficiency of the public service, must be observed.

I am firmly convinced that the continuance of the present Free Ports, in the face of the heavy duties imposed on merchandies by neighboring countries, will so attract to our shores shipping and commerce from all parts of the world, as to render this place, eventually, the emperium of the Pacific.

I am desirous of aiding any feasible plan fo the improvement of our postal communications, that will not prove a burthen on colonial funds.

in more of our postal communications, that will not prove a burthen on colonial funds.

I am in favor of an assisted emigration of the industrial classes, to eithence the value of land and its produce, and to distribute the necessary public expenditure over as large an area as possible.

I am opposed to the appropriation of State Funds to the endowment of any particular religious denomination. Every church should be supported by its own inembers.

ous denomination. Every church should be sup-ported by its own imembers.

A liberal and well digested Land System, that will open up the productive resources of the coun-try, and increase the number of bona fide settlers, will be steadily advocated by every means in my power.

I shall be prepared to forward every measure that will tend to the establishment of a large export trade in timber, lumber, and the other staples trade in timeer, tunner, te island:

shall steadily oppose all measures which ld tend to any combination of political powe detriment of individual enterprise in the Colo and privings in the house of the detriment of individual enterprise in the Colony at large. If elected, I am prepared to introduce such Reforms as are necessary for the adaptation of English law to the exigencies of the Colony.

It is of the utmost importance that prompt measures be adopted to improve the condition of our Roads, Bridges and Harbours; and the purchase money of public lands should in the first instance be devoted to this purpose.

I shall further, to the utmost, all measures of a sound liberal progressive nature, that will promote the benefit of the Colony; and the development of free institutions will ever find in me, should I have the honor of being elected your Representative, a zealons and hearty supporter.

I have the honor to be, gentlemen,
